Food for Thought for the week of January 14, 2018
(Questions and Scriptures for further study and discussion.)

1. The church this letter was sent to faced cultural pressure to turn away from Jesus. How do you see that same pressure today on a corporate and individual level?

2. What does spiritual sluggishness look like for you?
Why is it so appealing?

3. The author talks about the basics of being a follower of Jesus. How would you assess your own progress with that list? How would others describe you?

4. In verses 4-6 the letter says it's impossible to restore someone who has experienced Jesus and then rejected Him. What does he mean? Can we fall into that category?

5. Will there be those who "did the church thing" their whole life who possibly do not know Jesus at the Final Judgment (hint: Matthew 7:21-23)? How does this passage relate to what Jesus said in Matthew's Gospel?

6. After issuing a fairly strong warning, the author moves to exhortation in verse 9. How should we respond?

7. If you stop at verse 12, you're left feeling somewhat overwhelmed. How does the final segment on the promise of God give us hope?
