Food for Thought for the week of September 17, 2017

(Questions and Scriptures for further study and discussion.)

1. What is spiritual sight? What does Jesus invite us into with the words "come and see"?

2. What is it about the uniqueness of Jesus that does not fit our current culture?

3. Where is God and what is He saying in our present circumstances? Do you ever feel like He is silent?

4. How would you explain the phrase "God speaks on our behalf" to someone who wasn't so sure about Christianity?

5. Why do you think the author of Hebrews doesn't introduce himself? Why the urgency to jump into the content?

6. The author makes it pretty clear that God only has one thing to say, and it's Jesus. Talk about the significance of this final word from God and why it's sometimes easy to add or subtract from it.

7. Why is it so hard for us to believe that Jesus is better than? What are we missing?

8. What does it mean that He "upholds the universe by the word of His power"? What impact should this have on our relationship with Him?

9. The author seems to break out into worship and poetry towards the end of this passage? Describe a moment in your life when your relationship with God went beyond knowledge and soared into awe and worship.
