

WORDS: Just Say The Word

Pastor Chad Ellenburg

Food for Thought for the week of November 27, 2016
(Questions and Scriptures for further study and discussion.)

Text: Luke 5:1-11 ESV

Any blank page will do. Luke 5:1-3

The Problem: Our pages aren't blank. Luke 5:4-5

The Words of God will wreck your heart and sink your boat. Luke 5:6-7

May I never lose the wonder. Luke 5:8-11

From now on...

1. How can we learn to hear God's voice and be obedient to what he says?
2. We have learned by now the significance of words and the value that they hold. Why is it so important to follow and grow in the words spoken by God instead of our own?
3. Think about some specific times in your life when you let God's words encourage you, which then motivated you to action. Share some examples.
4. We all play a significant part in God's story - are you playing yours? Ask yourself the question: How much of your story do you write vs letting God write it?
5. How do you personally feel Christians are playing their role in speaking the words of God vs. speaking their own words? How can we better play our part to help fulfill the Gospel mission?

To follow along on your smartphone or device, scan this QR code or visit pvwinona.com/Sunday. This message audio and video will be online Monday afternoon. Go to Resources, Sermons & Discussion Guides, then click on the current sermon series image.

November 27, 2016

Visit www.pvwinona.com, for a digital version of these notes and any additional notes if applicable. Go to Resources, Sermons & Discussion Guides, then click on the current sermon series image.*